SUP. BIDDLE TO SPEAK ON DEVASTATING CUTS TO WISCONSIN SHARES

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Eyon Biddle, Sr., will speak at a community event Wednesday to discuss his support for the Wisconsin Shares program and its importance to working class families in Milwaukee County.

The free event gives parents an opportunity to learn the skills necessary to protect child care, economic security and other opportunities for their children. The event also includes food, music and child care.

“I ran for County Supervisor to fight for working families, and we need work-support programs like Wisconsin Shares, which provides access to jobs for working-class men and women,” Supervisor Biddle said. “Governor Scott Walker, who promised the creation of 250,000 jobs during his campaign, and Senator Alberta Darling are trying to restrict access to jobs through waiting lists, higher co-pays and lower eligibility requirements in the Wisconsin Shares program. This runs contrary to their public statements in favor of job creation.”

Wednesday’s informational event is sponsored by 9to5, Citizen Action of Wisconsin – Good Livable Neighborhoods, Playground Legends, and Reproductive Justice Collective.
